NTI Launches a Call for Proposals for the Uqausirngaq Fund to Support Inuktitut Revitalization

(May 6, 2025 – Iqaluit, Nunavut) Nunavut Tunngavik Inc. (NTI) president Jeremy Tunraluk is pleased to announce the 2025–2026 Uqausirngaq Fund Call for Proposals, an Inuit led initiative funded by the Government of Canada to support the protection, reclamation, revitalization, and maintenance of Inuktitut across Nunavut and beyond.

“A key priority in Inungnik Makipalliatittiniq 2025-2029, NTI’s four year strategic priorities, is Inuktitut for All Time – ensuring that Inuktitut is thriving amongst Nunavut Inuit,” says President Tunraluk. “And providing access to language funding will help us to achieve this goal”.

Proposals must demonstrate how activities will serve a majority Nunavut Inuit population and support one or more of the Fund’s priority areas, including:

1. Inuktitut Media and Arts
2. Inuktitut Education
3. Inuktitut Language Skills Development
4. Inuktitut Community Programming
5. Inuktitut Language Documentation

Projects must be completed by March 31, 2026, and align with the goal of increasing access to Inuktitut language resources, learning opportunities, and cultural programming for Nunavut Inuit.

Proposals will be accepted until Friday, May 23, 2025. For more information on eligibility, proposal guidelines, and submission details, please visit www.tunngavik.com or email uqausirngaq@tunngavik.com.
